FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cameron Hamilton promoted to Partner of The McLean Group

McLean, VA, April 15, 2009 – The McLean Group is proud to announce that Managing Director Cameron Hamilton has been promoted to Partner in the firm.

Mr. Hamilton joined The McLean Group in 2001 as an analyst. Since 2002, Mr. Hamilton has been involved in more than 30 successful sell-side and buy-side mergers and acquisitions (M&A) and capital formation engagements. Most recently, Mr. Hamilton was the lead banker on the December 2008 acquisition of Oak Ridge, Tennessee's Haselwood Enterprises, Inc. by Tetra Tech, Inc. (NASDAQ: TTEK).

Mr. Hamilton will continue to lead the firm's Government Contracting practice while also coaching the firm's Engagement Support Staff, hoping to help lead more of its associates and analysts to follow in his footsteps. Dennis Roberts, Chairman of The McLean Group, said: "We are extremely proud to recognize Cameron in this way. His accomplishments over the past eight years with the firm speak for themselves and he has been a principal driver behind the growth in our firm's abilities to service the government contracting community on a national as well as local basis."

Mr. Hamilton received his AB in Economics from Princeton University. He has continued to maintain his close ties to the local community, currently serving on the Board of Directors of the Business Alliance of George Mason University, previously spending eight years as a coach with York Swim Club, and co-founding DC Water Polo in 2004.
